

INTERSECT and EXCEPT Commands

EXCEPT and INTERSECT

- Returns distinct values by comparing the results of two queries
- EXCEPT returns only distinct values from the left query that are not returned from the right query
- INTERSECT returns only distinct values that are returned by both queries

Basic rules for using EXCEPT or INTERSECT

- Number and order of columns must be the same in all queries.
- Data types must be identical or compatible.